Dear Ms. Green:

I am in receipt of your letter dated July 16, 1993 requesting reaffirmation of the Court's policy regarding your office's participation in the preargument conference program.

As has been the practice since 1976, the Attorney General, appearing as an appellant before this Court, is not required to file a preargument statement or attend a preargument conference. When the Attorney General appears before the Court as a respondent, participation in the preargument process will be required as the Court deems appropriate.

Very truly yours,

Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe
